SUMMARY

I'm a Creative Frontend Developer with over 8 years of expertise in building large, high-performance, and highly interactive web applications. Experienced in React, Next.js, TypeScript, GSAP, and Three.js, I build interactive, highly scalable interfaces optimized for speed, accessibility, and remarkable user experiences.

My interest in blending technology and design directs my endeavor of providing rich, animation-heavy web solutions exploring new frontiers of what's possible in contemporary web development.
